THE DAILY ROUND UP.

HEARTSEASE.

(By Emory Pottle.)

When summer afternoon and twilight meet,
The old, dear home is silent, cool and sweet,
The open windows breathe the golden air, Honeyed with August odors fine and fair;
By the shrill joy of some home-turning bird
The calm content of day is gently stirred;
A sense of blessedness, of heart's full ease, Falls on the blossomed field and good green trees.

The shadows in the low, beloved room Gather and grow in slow, familiar gloom.
How strangely pale the sculptured Dante dreams High on his shelf! How mellow are the gleams
Of faithful books!—What a mysterious grace.
Lingers about the shabby, time-worn place.
The world is far away—Here with my friends—
Old memories, old shadows—so it ends.

The grave, green stillness closer folds the land;
The room is huge with dusk. Now, pipe in hand, I take the perfect hour. Hush, the soft croon
Of music—O my heart, that old Scotch tune She played the night we met!—She's calling there
For me to come—I wonder if she'll wear
The pink rose gown I so loved then?
—to come
And in the tender darkness talk of home.

Burglars Enter Lumber Office—Burglars broke into the office of the Las Vegas Lumber Company, but secured nothing but a few pennies.

Fire at Anton Chico—A fire at Anton Chico destroyed the barn, corral and 150 bales of alfalfa, the property of David Marquez. The loss is $600.

Dormitory for University—Plans are being drawn for a girls' dormitory at the Normal University at Las Vegas. The building is to have thirty rooms.

Union County Normal Institute—The teachers' institute at Clayton, Union county, has just closed. It had an enrollment of 56 teachers. Professor J. S. Hofer of Las Vegas was the conductor.

Settled Old Pension Claim—The bureau of pensions has just settled a claim of $42.66 clothing allowance, which dates as far back as 1866, paying the sum to Mrs. Maria Paz Gomez of Las Vegas, whose husband served in the First New Mexico infantry.

Las Vegas Wedded—At the Harvey ranch, near Las Vegas, yesterday, Rev.
Cleon Forbes and Miss Florence Augusta Turner were married by Rev.
H. Van Valkenburg of the Methodist church. The groom is professor of mathematics at the Biblical Literary College at Odessa, Mo. Ike Davis, a business man of Las Vegas was married on Sunday to Miss Rose Bierman at Los Angeles.

Runaway Freight Train—The Santa Fe had another freight wreck west of Albuquerque yesterday when a train of seventeen cars broke loose from the engine thirty miles west of the Duke City and came thundering down the grade to Pava Junction, where it crashed into a switch engine demolishing it.
The wreckage caught fire and was still burning last night.

Youthful Rough Riders Off for Santa Fe—"Louie and Temple Abernathy, the child "rough riders" from Oklahoma, traveling from Guthrie to Santa Fe horseback and alone, left this morning at 8 o'clock after spending three days in Roswell, resting up and giving their horses a chance to pick up a little. From Roswell they will pass over the auto route to Torrance and then follow the Santa Fe Central Railroad from end to end. At the Ancient City they will be met by their father. The two boys, seven and five years old respectively, looked like babies almost, as they sat on their horses at the start in front of the Grand Central hotel this morning.
They were photographed by two different kodakers, Mayor G. A. Richardson being in the picture also. Mayor Richardson and Colonel Lee Richards accompanied the boys to the city limits as honorary escort and to bid them God-speed on their journey."—Roswell Daily Record.

An Artists' Reception—"A most delightful social event was the informal reception given by Mr. and Mrs. I. E.
Couse on Sunday afternoon to the artists and forest service people sojourning in Taos. The reception was given in the studio of Mr. Couse and the guests were Messrs. Groll and Sandors, mentioned in our artist column, Mr. and Mrs. Berninghaus, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Phillips, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Rumsey, Mr. McMillan and Mrs. Lichenstein. Ice cream and cake were served as refreshments. One of the especially enjoyable points of interest connected with the social gathering was the meeting of Mr. Couse and Mr. Groll, who are old friends in New York City, where both have been frequently called upon to serve on the jury of selection in the Academy of Design. Their recounting of experiences was of a most interesting nature. The jury consists of thirty members, and it requires two-thirds vote to make a selection. Sometimes artists, themselves members of the jury, have been placed in the exceedingly embarrassing position of sitting in silence, and seeing some work from their own brain and brush, ruthlessly voted unworthy of a place in the Academy. The reception was one of the most delightful social events of the summer."—Taos Valley News.
